A distinguished panel of judges will review each nomination and select the winner based upon the following criteria:

- Innovation – The nominee regularly presents new ideas and helps bring them to fruition in areas such as productivity improvement, safety, workflow, efficiency, and profitability.
- Employee Engagement – The nominee fosters a culture of inclusion, where employees enjoy working in the organization. He or she effectively engages and empowers the workforce, involving employees in improvement initiatives, problem-solving, decision-making and success.
- Leadership & Results – The nominee serves as a positive role model for other employees, demonstrating high integrity, ethical behavior, exceptional work habits, a strong work ethic and strong character that influence his or her fellow employees. He or she consistently meets or exceeds key metrics or financial goals.
- Community Service – The nominee volunteers his/her time and/or other resources to give something back to the community. He or she regularly performs community service such as volunteerism, coaching, local government, schools, civic activities or other forms of altruism.
